Data Protection Officer ("DPO") of Politecnico di Torino, whom data subjects may contact regarding the processing of their personal data and the exercise of their rights, may be contacted at the following addresses: dpo@polito.it; certified email (PEC): dpo@pec.polito.it.

PRINCIPLES, LEGAL BASIS AND PURPOSES OF PROCESSING

In accordance with the principles of lawfulness, fairness, transparency, adequacy, relevance and necessity laid down in Art. 5(1) of the GDPR, Politecnico di Torino, as Controller, in pursuing its institutional purposes of higher education under the University Statute, will process the personal data collected for the following purposes:

Description	Legal basis
- receipt and management of applications; - verification of eligibility requirements;	- Art. 6(1), point: o e) ["processing is necessary for the performance of a task

- administrative support and assessment by the Selection Committee; - processing, award and acceptance of fee waivers; - enrolment and management of administrative records; - service-related communications; - management of tuition fees, exemptions, payments (including by third parties), refunds and insurance-related obligations; - accounting and tax records.	carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller"] of the GDPR.
- verification of self-declarations; - management of access requests, checks by public authorities and records retention; - protection of the University's rights in any disputes concerning the procedure.	- Art. 6(1), point: o c) ["processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject"] of the GDPR.

In particular, personal data concerning identity, personal details and contact information, as well as data relating to educational qualifications, training, language skills and professional experience, will be collected and processed electronically and, where applicable, on paper, for the purpose of managing the selection procedure for admission to the Executive Master in Systems Thinking for Sport & Entertainment in accordance with the relevant call for applications, and for the possible award of fee waivers.

PERSONS AUTHORISED TO PROCESS DATA, RECIPIENTS OR CATEGORIES OF RECIPIENTS AND DATA PROCESSORS

Data processed for the above purposes will be disclosed to, or otherwise made accessible to, persons designated by Politecnico di Torino, who will receive appropriate instructions from the Controller.
Strictly necessary data may be disclosed to certification bodies and other competent entities for verification purposes, payment service providers, treasury and insurance service providers, as well as public authorities, supervisory bodies and judicial authorities where permitted or required by law.
In addition, some of your personal data may be shared with Juventus Football Club S.p.A. for activities carried out in collaboration with that company.
The personal data collected by Politecnico di Torino are managed and stored on systems located within the University and/or on external systems operated by providers of certain services required for technical and administrative management. Such providers may have access to the personal data of data subjects solely for the purpose of providing the requested service and will be duly appointed as data processors pursuant to Art. 28 of the GDPR.

DATA TRANSFERS

Personal data may be transferred to a country outside the European Union (a so-called third country). In addition to transfers covered by an adequacy decision of the European Commission, transfers to non-EU countries are carried out subject to appropriate safeguards pursuant to Arts. 46, 47 or 49 of the GDPR.

DATA RETENTION PERIOD

Application data are retained for as long as necessary to complete the selection procedure and any movements on the ranking list, without prejudice to applicable records retention and archiving obligations and any need to protect the University's rights.

For enrolled participants, records relating to their academic career and final certification will be retained indefinitely, taking into account the archiving obligations imposed by applicable law. Accounting and tax records are retained for the periods prescribed by the relevant legislation.

Any additional data collected will be retained, in accordance with the principles set out in Art. 5 of the GDPR, for no longer than is necessary to achieve the purposes for which they were collected.
The Controller may retain personal data for longer periods where processing is necessary for legal defence or to bring legal proceedings to protect its rights.

PROVISION OF DATA

The provision of personal data is mandatory; refusal to provide such data will make it impossible to fulfil the purposes described above.

RIGHTS OF THE DATA SUBJECT

As a data subject, you have the right to request from the Controller, pursuant to Arts. 15 et seq. of the GDPR:

- access to your personal data and all the information referred to in Art. 15 of the GDPR;
- rectification of inaccurate personal data and completion of incomplete data;
- erasure of your data, except for data contained in records that the University is required to retain, and unless there are overriding legitimate grounds for continuing the processing;
- restriction of processing in the circumstances set out in Art. 18 of the GDPR.

You also have the right:

- to object to the processing of personal data, without prejudice to the necessity and mandatory nature of processing for completion of the procedure initiated;
- to withdraw any consent given for non-mandatory processing of data, without affecting the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

If you wish to exercise any of your rights, you may contact the Controller.
